

Passerina Vino Frizzante

Indicazione Geografica Tipica

Wine from grapes grown Passerina among the rolling hills of the province of Ascoli Piceno Cossignano vocation wine zone.

The grapes grown in the vineyards historians, gives the wine intense aromas typical of the variety, the high acidity along with the Charmat method allows to give the product a creamy "effervescence and perlage" that affects benevolently on the combination. Ideal with all meat entrees and especially fish.

Alcohol content 10.5% by volume

Temperature of 8-10 ° C.

